

Dear Frank,

Aug 2, 1995

Great to hear from you. I came back from California and feet rotten for weeks. I realized also that I could barely carry on a phos~~se~~ conversation. One phone call per evening was about as much as I could handle. I hope this won't remain a permanent state of affairs. At any rate, I've been cutting back, slowing down. So it was a treat to get your call, as I've been depressed as hell over a body that won't serve me and holds me back even more than before.

I sure envy your trip to Japan. I've been wanting to make one trip there, but I don't think I'll ever be up to it. Paris is my consolation. Would love to see China and Singapore, too. Maybe you can pick up a power-giving potion for me in Japan which might reverse my frustrating condition.

Will you be going to Kyoto? If so, I may have contact, which you might like to pursue. More later.

Am waiting for Hannah's snapshots of you and Jan,
in the meanwhile,

love to all of you, including dear Dana.
