

QUESTION #1

Japanese Americans have been silent on the internment for 38 years. Why bring this up now?

QUESTION #2

In 1942 the government and the JACL said going to camp was your contribution to the war effort. Isn't it unpatriotic of you to seek redress for doing your duty?

QUESTION #3

What lasting damage have the camps done to you?

QUESTION #4 - FOR NISEI & ISSEI

Many different remedies have been suggested. How much money is enough to repay you for your suffering?

QUESTION # 4. SANSEL

You weren't even born when all this happened. Why is the redress campaign important to you?