

10:30 P.M.
Albany Hotel

Dear Frank,

Just came back from the jail. Three of the boys are to leave with U.S. Marshall Sanders tomorrow morning at six, Masao Mayekawa, Carl Nakata, and Dims Isufuki. Deputy Marshall (Red) notified us late tonight that this sudden change was necessitated because the deputies going (accompanying the boys on train) were unable to come back on a passenger train. So U.S. Marshall Sanders is going to take his car, at the same time bring along these three boys. Otherwise there is nothing to worry about the boys, they are to be together with the latter group at McNeil's Island farm. In a way the boys are lucky to be able to go on a passenger car, it's much more comfortable and restful. I was intending to wire this sudden change but on a second thought, I thought the folks might worry unnecessarily by misinterpretation of the telegram. The boys are already to go tomorrow, their luggage is prepared and checked. We shall see them off tomorrow.

This afternoon we dropped in at Judge Watts office. There wasn't any additional information he could give us. Monday this coming tenth he is going to Denver to see if he and S. Menin can make our case as an consolidated group. I told him to wire immediately to you, Frank whatever the outcome would be. I asked Watts if he can give me an written statement so I can show the families back home concerning this one third sentence of the parole situation. Am enclosing the copies. After reading it over at my room I was hesitant about the part violating the law, I shall inquire Watts again how it would concern us.

I, by chance inquired if Mr. Watts had any typewriter to sell. He had an old Underwood (pretty fair) model no 3. I said we needed one so if it is as an favour we'd be much obliged. He will let me know tomorrow. He paid fifteen dollars <sup>for it</sup> second hand, some years ago. I am hoping he would sell it reasonably. I sure will try like heck.

Not every time I see him <sup>(Wetzel)</sup> I stress about our agreement. He said he shall try his best to keep it under the conditions.
So bad I cannot see Menon and remind him of our gentleman's agreement.

Hozie

P.S. Boys are leaving Saturday night.
Planning to leave that night on the bus.