REDUCES BURGLARS TO NERVOUS WRECKS

Receptacle for Jewelry and Valuable Papers With Interior Continuous Alarm Outwits Burglars and Nimble Wits.

Herman A. Fortriede, 609 Oriental Building, has the Northwestern agency for the Trusty Alarm Safe, a compact, sheet-steel box, weighing about twelve pounds, and equipped with an interior alarm device which, when the safe is picked up, or moved the fraction of an inch from its resting place, instantly sets up a shrill ringing which will continue for ten hours, or until the box is unlocked and the alarm shut off by a lever just inside the lid.

It would be unendurably severe on the nerves of any burglar to try to get away with this noisy box, whose racket he cannot stop nor understand. As a safeguard for jewelry and valuable papers kept about the house or office, the Trusty Alarm Safe, ornamental in appearance and indestructible by fire, is a distinct triumph of inventive genius. It met with instantaneous approval among banks, business offices and wealthy homes of Philadelphia and other Eastern cities. Mr. Fortriede will be pleased to arrange for demonstrations, which are very simple and require less than one minute.

KANSAS CLUB ELECTS

Gertrude McComb was chosen president of the local Kansas Club at the annual banquet and election of officers of the organization, held at the Good Eats Cafeteria, Friday, L. E. ## WOMAN MAY SIT IN GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

OLYMPIA, Saturday, Feb. 6.—Washington may have the distinction of having the first woman governor of any state in the Union next summer, plans now being discussed by state officials are carried out.

naturally fall upon Lieut.-Gov. Louis F. Hart. But Mr. Hart, it is said, also cherishes a desire to see the exposition, as does Secretary of State L. M. Howell, next in order of succession. Also State Treasurer Edward Meath, State Auditor C. W. Clausen and Attorney-General W. V. Tanner would like to see the fair.

That the state officials combine forces and visit the fair together, and leave Mrs. Josephine Preston, superintendent of public instruction, at Olympia to be acting governor, is the proposal that is now being discussed. So far the scheme has not gone beyond the discussion stage. Probably it never will.
